which hereby intends to inform users visitors to the site of the policy adopted with regard to Cookies, emphasizing its commitment and attention with reference to the protection of privacy of visitors to its site.

Cookies are small text strings that the sites visited by the user send to his terminal, usually the browser, where they are stored and then retransmitted to the same sites on subsequent visits by the same user. There are macro-categories of cookies, such as "technical" and "profiling".

a. Technical cookies. Technical cookies whose use does not require the user's consent pursuant to art. 122 paragraph 1 of Legislative Decree. 196/2003, can be divided into navigation or session cookies, which ensure the normal navigation and use of the website (allowing, for example, to authenticate to access restricted areas); analytics cookies, used to collect information, in aggregate form, on the number of users and how they visit the site itself; functionality cookies, which allow the user to navigate according to a set of selected criteria (such as language) in order to improve the service provided to the user.

b. Profiling cookies. Profiling cookies are aimed at creating profiles of the user and are used to send advertising messages in line with the preferences expressed by the user during web navigation. The management of information collected by "third parties" is governed by the relevant information which please refer to. In order to ensure greater transparency and convenience, below are the web addresses of the various policies and procedures for managing cookies.
